massart newsletter

28 November - 2 December

Monday, 28 November	Printmakers' Association meeting. Etching Studio, 12:30 P.M. All invited
	Art Ed. Film Series: "Who is Oscar Niemeyer" and "Zone: Exploration in New Media." B-10, 12-1 PM. All invited.
	Executive Staff meeting. Conference Room, 2 PM.
Tuesday, 29 November	Department Heads' meeting. Conference Room, 9:30 AM
Wednesday, 30 November	BAU meeting. Fullerton, Room 301, 12:30 PM.
	SIM meeting. Space 46, 12:30 PM
	Student Painting Association meeting, Overland, 4th floor, 12:30 P.M.
	Critical Studies Department meeting with President Nolan. B-7, 4:30 PM
	Women's Group Organizational meeting. B-5, 7 PM.
Thursday, 1 December	Faculty Federation meeting. B-5 noon
	Admissions Committee meeting. Admissions Office, Fullerton, 3rd floor, 12:30 PM
	College Council meeting. Conference Room, 2 PM
	Art Ed. Lecture: Judy Grunbaum gives a workshop and video on "Education of Blind Adolescents through Movement." B-6, 2 PM. All invited.
	Poetry Workshop. C-2, 4 PM. All invited
	Student Government Association meeting. Student Activities Office, Fullerton, 5:15 PM
	Coffee House. Longwood Cafeteria, 8 PM to midnight.
Friday, 2 December	First Annual Art Auction '77, sponsored by Student Painting Association. Works on display 11 AM to 7 PM, auction begins at 7 PM, conducted by Dean Nimmer. Fullerton, first floor.
Friday and Saturday 2 and 3 December	Benita Bike and Dancers present a performance and discussion of dance works. 8:00 PM, Longwood Theater.

Help Channel 2:

Have you always wanted to be on television? December 1 (Thursday) is the State College System's night to volunteer to man telephones on Channel 2 as pledges are called in. Here is your chance to help Channel 2 in return for listening free to all their great programs. If you are interested in volunteering, call Cynthia or Anne at Central office of the State College System. 727-4560, or Dorothy Esterquest here at the college, ext. 34. The hours to be covered on December 1 are 7:00-11:30 PM. You can serve for the whole time period or any part of it that you are able.

* * *

Art Auction:

You can still donate work for the Student Painting Associations' Art Auction (see calendar for Friday, 2 December) by bringing it to Pat Ryan or Debbie Cailler on the 4th floor, Overland between 9 AM and noon this Wednesday and Thursday.

* * *

Faculty Federation:

The agenda for the Faculty Federation on Thursday, 1 December, at 12:00 noon in Room B-5 includes 1) The upcoming single-unit bargaining election (13 December);
2) College reorganization;
3) Report on Grievances; and
4) Inequities in the status and use of part-time faculty.

Coffee and pastry will be served.

Admissions Committee:

There will be a meeting of the Admissions Committee on Thursday, December 1, 1977 at 12:30 PM, in the Admissions Office third Floor Fullerton.

This will be an important organizational meeting and your attendance needed! If you are not able to attend, please inform me as soon as possible (my mail or my office, Longwood B-4).

--Dean Nimmer,
Acting Admissions Chairperson

* * *

College Council:

The agenda for the meeting of the College Council on Thursday, December 1 at 2 PM is as follows:

Announcements/letters
Minutes
President's Report
Committee Reports
Old Business
- Changes in Student Fee Structure
- Academic Dean Search Committee appointments

New Business
- Security Policies/Shop Safety Rules
- Assignments for Council Committees

Student grievance procedure
Student complaint response system.

This meeting will take place in the Conference Room. All meetings of the College Council are open, and the college community is invited to attend.

* * *

Women's Group Forming at MassArt:

On Wednesday, November 30 at 7 PM an organizational meeting will be held in room B-5 Longwood. There is a small group of women at MassArt who have been meeting for a year and would like to organize school wide. Topics to be discussed:

- formation of women's center
  , , , library
  . . . referral center
- formation of artists support groups
- functioning of existing Women's Committee

Please come and bring your ideas. For more information call Candy Chick, 522-4558.

* * *

Flu Vaccine Available:

You can get a shot of flu vaccine through the Health Services Office in Longwood, 28 November through 8 December, at a cost of $2.50 per injection. The vaccine will be the bi-valent type. Those with upper respiratory problems are especially urged to take this precaution.

* * *

Poetry Workshop Club is pleased to announce that through the efforts of Colleen Harquail, we now have from SGA $400 to use on guest poets, refreshments, xeroxing and exhibitions. It is a marvellous start.

Through the efforts of Mike Cornish, we have been given the space for exhibition of poems in Overland outside the Theater. We shall receive additional money to frame and mount the poems.

Our greatest trouble has been in finding a time when we can all meet. Bring your poems, particularly one you would like to exhibit at Overland (and lperhaps calligraph) to our next meeting on Thursday, 1 December, at 4 PM in Room C-2.

* * *

Coffee House Notes:

On Thursday, December 1, the Coffee House (8 - 12 midnight, Longwood Cafeteria) serves good food at a reasonable cost to you. Peter Hamlin, a contemporary folk, rock musician will play early in the evening. Bruce Codagnone and Jim Olsen, accoustical guitarists/vocalists will also perform. Ken Antoinne, Master Flamenco Guitarist will perform for about 1/2 hour. Brian Stevens, a MassArt graduate will perform popular and ragtime tunes.

Keep in mind our "Grande Semester Finale" on December 15.

* * *

Thanks:

Norman Toynton would like to thank past and present students who helped him install his exhibition that is currently being shown at the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston.

Present Students	Graduate Students	Past Students
David Brown	Guy Pellerin	Francis Olschafskie
Howard Hastie	Steven Jones	Rupert Webster
John Pagano		Tom Shay
Michael King		David Tandy
		Paul Campbell

* * *

New Minority Affairs Director

Sharon Dunn is to be appointed Director of Minority Affairs, and will begin her duties immediately. She will also become a member of the Core faculty, teaching one course, beginning with the spring semester, AY 1977-78. She is currently functioning as studio tutor in the basic skills program and will continue this work on a half-time basis.

* * *

Who's Doing What:

Donna Rae Hirt (printmaking) has sent the Newsletter a list of her activities, present and scheduled, that is most impressive but much too long for reporoduction here. The list includes three appearances as Visiting Artist (Rhode Island College of Art, Cranbrook Institute of Art, University of Vermont), three one-person shows (two in Michigan, one in Vermont), three invitationals (Rhode Island College of Art, Emporia [Kansas] State University, Impressions Workshop [Boston]). Her work is appearing in the "Simultaneous Print Show" that is touring seven major East Coast Art Colleges and was seen here recently. She is also setting up her own Lithography Workshop in Newton Centre.

Margaret Johnson (Placement Director) has recently been asked to serve on the editorial staff of DRAW, the monthly publication of the Art Directors' Club of Boston.

Poetry and Music Festival: On Saturday, 3 December.

There will be a Poetry and Music Festival at the Endicott Estate in Dedham. All are welcome. Bring a bit of food to share with others. Poets will be reading and musicians playing at 10 minute non-stop intervals from 5 PM until 11 PM. Lila Chalpin (English) will read at 9:50 and would like to see a friendly face or two.

The Endicott Estate, owned by M.I.T., is on East Street. To reach it from Rt 1, VFW Parkway, at Dedham rotary, take right on Washington St., left on Williams St., right on East St., enter estate on left.

Off 128S, take East St., exit, go 3/4 around rotary and continue 2 miles, enter right.

Exhibitions: Photographs by Bill Christianberry and Walker Evans will remain on view in the longwood Gallery through 7 December.